The Bioinformatics T3: Train the Trainer project has three components:

- BASH training to enable classes to work in the UNIX environment.
- A dedicated web portal with links to instructional resources, online step-by-step video tutorials, case studies, and a forum for building a Community of Bioinformatics Trainers.
- Support for delivering the curriculum that includes access to a dedicated server with bioinformatics software.

For more information, visit: https://mdibl.org/course/bioinformatics-t3-2020/